

European survey on the Resilience of Health and Educational Systems

Specific privacy statement

The personal data you provide for the purpose of your participation to the above-mentioned survey, is processed in accordance with Regulation (EU) No 2018/1725¹ of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018.

The survey and the associated processing operations are under the responsibility of European Environment Agency, Dept. of Climate and Circular Economy, European Climate and Health Observatory, acting as data Controller, regarding the collection and processing of personal data.

1. Purpose(s) of the processing

Your personal data is collected and further processed for the purposes of coordinating, organising and managing the survey; this includes in particular conducting a survey on the resilience of education and health systems in Europe

2. Recipients of the data processed

For the purposes detailed above, access to your personal data is given to the following persons, without prejudice to a possible transmission to the bodies in charge of monitoring or inspection tasks in accordance with European Union law:

1. To the authorized persons from the European Climate and Health Observatory team members from the European Environment Agency
2. To the authorized persons at SoSci Survey GmbH

No personal data is shared with third parties for direct marketing purposes.

3. Categories of data processed

The only personal data collected and further processed is the information you provide in connection with your participation to the survey, by filling out the optional open field for collecting e-mail contact details for follow-up purposes. As this is an open field, data subjects may disclose additional data that is not required by the survey.

4. Modalities for the processing operation

Personal data is provided via an online form. Your personal data will be separated from the data to be analyzed by the EEA staff member(s) responsible for the survey and will be stored under password encryption for follow-up purposes, in case you indicated you wish to be contacted.

5. Right of access and rectification

You have no direct access to the data stored. If you wish to verify, modify or delete any of your personal data, you should address your request in writing by email using the contact information specified in the survey or to the following address: eu-climate-health@eea.europa.eu. Any request for access or rectification of personal data shall specify explicitly the object and purpose(s).

Special attention is drawn to the consequences of a request for deletion, which will imply that any possibility to contact you will be lost.

6. Legal basis

The processing of your personal data is necessary for the performance and support of the numerous tasks carried out by the EEA as mandated by Regulation (EC) No 401/2009 of 23 April 2009 on the EEA and Eionet, and in particular Article 2 thereof, and for the internal management and functioning of the EEA. Processing of your personal data is based on your consent, as provided for under Article 5(1)(d) of Regulation (EU) No 2018/1725. You have the right to revoke your consent by contacting the data controller.

7. Data retention

Your personal data is kept as long as necessary for the purposes of the organisation and management of the related survey, as well as for any follow-up actions the survey may entail. Your personal data, will generally be deleted from databases 1 year after the last action in relation to the survey.

8. Right to appeal

You are entitled to have recourse at any time to the European Data Protection Supervisor (<https://edps.europa.eu>; edps@edps.europa.eu) if you consider that your rights under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 have been infringed as a result of the processing of your personal data by the EEA.

You may also contact the EEA's Data protection Officer (DPO) in case of any difficulties relating to the processing of your data at the following email address: DPO@eea.europa.eu.
